Student and Parent Covenant

As a participant in the Youth Fellowship (YF) program, I, _____, agree to the following:

I will treat other participating youth and adults with the respect and Christian love that I am called by God to show all people.

I will be clothed in patience, love, kindness, and generosity – leaving behind hurtful words, anger, bitterness, and jealousy.

I will participate willingly in all activities, unless there is a sound health or other concern.

I will support the faith journey of other youth, as they will support my personal faith journey.

I will take accountability for my speech and actions.

I will listen to the YF Coordinator and other supervising adults with respect, recognizing that their leadership of the program may require a degree of authority over me and my actions.

As a parent to the above student, I agree to the following:

I will encourage my youth to attend YF events as possible, given other family and personal commitments.

I will support my youth in their personal discipleship, recognizing that God has made them a unique human being with special gifts.

I understand the above covenant signed by my youth.

I will work with the supervising adults, other parents, and Yorkfield Presbyterian Church staff, as necessary, to resolve any conflicts that may arise as part of the YF program.

I will support the decisions and actions of the YF Coordinator and other supervising adults feel are necessary in providing disciple to my youth and others, as long as all such discipline is provided in accordance with the beliefs of our church.
